UNE Library Services: You, Our Authors

Library Services is always excited to hear about, highlight, and celebrate our UNE authors, whether faculty, staff, or students. We are often able to host your work in UNE's digital repository, DUNE: DigitalUNE, and we've recently revived a version of our UNE Authors highlight page – take a look!

NEW UNE AUTHORED BOOKS HIGHLIGHT

DUNE: DIGITALUNE FOR FACULTY WORK

New UNE Authored Books Highlight

When we hear about a new book from a UNE author, we're adding it to our News & Events highlights on library.une.edu. Be sure to let us know when your book is published so we can add it to the highlight!

Be in touch about your other work, as well, so we can show the world what you're up to via DUNE: DigitalUNE, UNE's online open access repository. With DUNE, it's best to be in touch well ahead of publication so we can work to ensure copyright compliance. Note, too, that DUNE also is able to accept 'gray literature' – materials which may not have been traditionally published but which may be of use to the world.

Please share these resources with your colleagues and let us know at the library how we can help you and your students.

Thanks,
